IFSC - STATUTES

I. BASIS

Article 1

The International Federation of Sport Climbing (IFSC) is the world governing body for all aspects of Sport Climbing, especially international competition climbing, leisure and recreational climbing, and climbing as a sport for all.

The IFSC is the final authority for all matters concerning competition climbing.

The IFSC is recognised by the IOC, is member of ARISF, SportAccord and IWGA.

Article 2

The principal purposes of the IFSC are the direction, regulation, promotion, development and furtherance of the sport of competition climbing on a world-wide basis.

The IFSC fosters links, networks, and friendly relations among its members, their climbers and officials.

II. LEGAL FORM OF ASSOCIATION, HEADQUARTERS AND LANGUAGE

Article 3

The IFSC is a non-governmental international association with a non-profit-making purpose of international interest, having legal personality pursuant to Art. 60 ff. of the Swiss Civil Code. The IFSC has its seat in Bern, Switzerland. The IFSC is established for an indefinite period.

The headquarters and the secretariat of the IFSC may be located in a country other than Switzerland, upon the decision of the Executive Board.

Article 4

The official language of the IFSC is English.

III. OBJECTIVES AND PRINCIPLES

Article 5

All activities of the IFSC are independent of any political or governmental influence.

The IFSC does not allow any discrimination for political, racial or religious reasons.

The IFSC promotes and support with all means gender equality in its activities.

The IFSC is in particular responsible for and undertakes:

- a) to encourage, promote, develop and supervise climbing competitions worldwide;

Changes and amendments of these Statutes may only be considered if at least half of the Members of IFSC having the right to vote are present or represented. To be adopted, such items must receive the approval of two thirds of the votes cast.

For all other decisions of the Plenary Assembly there is no quorum. Decisions are taken with the majority of votes cast.

TAKING OF DECISIONS

Article 20

Voting at the Plenary Assembly is conducted by show of hands. Upon the request of any delegate entitled to vote, supported by at least one other delegate, any vote must be taken by secret written ballot.

Elections shall always be decided by secret written ballot.

AGENDA AND THE RIGHT TO INTRODUCE PROPOSALS

Article 21

Items for inclusion in the Agenda of any Plenary Assembly may be presented by:

- a) the Executive Board
- b) any Member

The provisional Agenda with short explanation of the topics shall be distributed two months before the date of the PA. Items presented by IFSC Members are to be sent to the IFSC Executive Board at least six weeks before the Plenary Assembly. The full Agenda with all documents has to be sent to all members at least 28 days before the PA.

Associate Members, Continental Members, Developing Continental Members and Observer Members are entitled to speak, but not to present motions to the Plenary Assembly, in accordance to the relevant regulations.

Article 22

Upon affirmative vote of no less than 2/3 of the Members being present and having voting rights, the Plenary Assembly itself may add items to the Agenda of any meeting.

EXTRAORDINARY PLENARY ASSEMBLY

Article 23

The Executive Board may at any time call an extraordinary Plenary Assembly.

At the written request of the majority of the Members entitled to vote, the Executive Board shall convene an extraordinary Plenary Assembly within 3 months of receipt of such request. The request must be substantiated and accompanied by a proposal for the Agenda.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

Article 24

The Executive Board of IFSC consists of the following officers:

- President/IFSC
- Vice-President – Sports / Events
- Vice President – Treasurer / Finances
- Vice President – Media and Communication
- General Secretary/IFSC

as well as of:

- one representative elected by each of the five Continental Councils
- one representative elected by the Athletes' Commission.

Article 25

Candidates standing for election to any post in the Executive Board (with the exception of the representatives of the Athletes and representatives of the Continental Councils) shall be presented by the Member association of the country where he/she holds citizenship.

The members of the Executive Board (with the exception of the representatives of the Athletes and representatives of the Continental Councils) are elected by the Plenary Assembly for a term of four years.

Executive Board members are re-eligible at will.

Article 26

The Executive Board is responsible for implementing all the policy directives and decisions made by the Plenary Assembly. This includes in particular:

- a) to prepare the agenda of the Plenary Assembly meetings;
- b) to prepare the annual accounts (consisting of the profit and loss statement and the balance sheet);
- c) to make recommendations to the Plenary Assembly about:
 - a. the long-term strategies of the IFSC;
 - b. regulations and rules to be decided by the Plenary Assembly;
 - c. the candidates to be appointed by the Plenary Assembly as members of Anti-doping, Disciplinary and Appeals Commissions;

- e) to set up the calendar of IFSC approved competitions and to coordinate schedules of International and Continental competitions;
- f) to decide the terms and conditions of contracts between the IFSC and organisers of IFSC approved competitions;
- g) to recommend any proposed changes to the IFSC Statutes;
- h) to appoint and remove persons (employees) entrusted with the management of IFSC's day-to-day operations;
- i) to make recommendations on the terms and conditions of contracts to be concluded with third parties outside IFSC;
- j) to decide on membership issues between Plenary Assembly meetings;
- k) to decide the official means of information of the IFSC;
- l) to control IFSC finances;
- m) to appoint an IFSC delegate for IFSC events as necessary;
- n) to initiate and undertake negotiations with third parties.

All statements and contracts which bind the IFSC must be signed by the President and the General Secretary, or one Vice-President. In case of absence, the President may be replaced by one Vice-President.

The Executive Board is responsible for the functioning of the administrative office of the IFSC. All permanent employees are hired by the Executive Board and employed in accordance with the annual budget.

Article 27

The Executive Board meets as often as necessary, but not less than once every year. Board meetings may be held by attendance in person or via telephone and/or conferencing.

The Board meetings are convened by the President or at the request of the majority of its members.

Article 28

The Agenda for the Executive Board meetings is prepared by the Steering Committee . However, any member of the Executive Board is entitled to present proposals for the agenda. Such proposals must be submitted, with relevant documentation, at least one month before the date set for any Executive Board meeting. The full agenda shall be sent by the Steering Committee to the Executive Board members at least two weeks prior to the meeting date.

Article 29

Every member of the Executive Board has one vote. All decisions of the Executive Board are taken by majority of the members present, and no voting rights may be exercised by proxy. The quorum of the Executive Board consists of a majority of its members.

THE PRESIDENT

World up
Keep
Climbing

INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF SPORT CLIMBING
www.ifsc-climbing.org

Article 30

The President chairs all meetings of the Plenary Assembly, the Executive Board. He represents the sport in all important matters, especially those pertaining to the IOC and other International organisations.

The President may, from time to time, delegate various aspects of IFSC management to other members of the Executive Board.

The President, or a Board member designated by the President, is entitled to attend and participate in all Commission meetings, but without vote.

Article 31

If the President is prevented from attending a meeting of the Executive Board or a Plenary Assembly, the Executive Board will appoint one of the Vice Presidents to chair those meetings.

In case of death or disability of the President, the Vice-President appointed by the Executive Board shall assume the President's duties until the next Plenary Assembly. Should the Vice-President in turn be unable to fulfil his/her obligations, the Treasurer/Vice President and/or the member of the Executive Board who has served on the Executive Board the longest shall assume his/her duties and convene an Extraordinary Plenary Assembly in order to elect appropriate replacements.

CONTINENTAL COUNCILS

Article 32

Continental Councils are responsible for the administration, development and furtherance of competition climbing in a specific continent or geographic area. The Continental Councils shall comply with and enforce the rules and regulations of the IFSC and co-operate with IFSC bodies. They organise continental championships and other competitions in their area.

The Continental Councils are:

- Africa
- Asia
- Europe
- Pan America
- Oceania

The Statutes and Regulations of the Continental Councils must be submitted to the Executive Board for approval and will not come into effect until they have received such approval.

Continental Councils must create an Athletes' Commission to provide permanent liaison between active Athletes and the Continental Council. One representative appointed by the Athletes' Commission must be a member of the Continental Council Executive Board.

SPORT DEPARTMENT

Article 33

The Sport Department will form the Technical Commissions related to sport management, such as sport regulations, calendar, Athletes and Entourage, Athletes' health, officials, etc.

These Technical Commissions are subject to approval by the Executive Board.

Members of these Commissions are proposed by Member associations. Their membership expires at end of the term of the Executive Board.

One member of each Commission is appointed by the Athletes' Commission.

Each Commission is directed by one of its members (Director), who is appointed by the Executive Board.

COMMISSIONS AND WORKING GROUPS

Article 34

The President, in accordance with the Executive Board, may create permanent or other standing or ad hoc commissions and working groups whenever it appears necessary, for the purpose of advising the Plenary Assembly, the Executive Board or the President.

ANTI-DOPING, DISCIPLINARY AND APPEALS COMMISSIONS AND RULES

Article 35

The function of the Anti-Doping Commission is to ensure that the IFSC complies with the World Anti-Doping Code. Its rules will comply with the World Anti-Doping Code.

The function of the Disciplinary Commission is to investigate and take appropriate action following any complaint concerning breach of rules (including the IFSC Anti-Doping Rules) or misconduct.

The function of the Appeals Commission is to decide appeals from decisions taken by the Disciplinary Commission (except in doping cases, where the appeal will be made to the Court of Arbitration for Sport).

Rules concerning these Commissions and their rules are set out in a regulation made by the Plenary Assembly.

Decisions of the Disciplinary Commission in doping cases and decisions of the Appeal Commission may be appealed to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (in Lausanne, Switzerland). The procedure before the Court of Arbitration for Sport takes place according to its regulations. The decision of the International Court of Arbitration for Sport will be final and there will be no further appeal from it.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Article 36

Disputes arising under the IFSC Statutes or otherwise, will be dealt with under the procedure and rules set out in the Disciplinary and Appeals Rules.

The final determination of a dispute can be appealed to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (in Lausanne, Switzerland).

The procedure before the Court of Arbitration for Sport takes place according to its regulations. The decision of the Court of Arbitration for Sport will be final and there will be no further appeal from it.

ATHLETES' COMMISSION

Article 37

The Athletes' Commission provides a permanent liaison between active athletes and the IFSC. One representative appointed by the Athletes' Commission is elected by the Plenary Assembly as member of the Executive Board.

Composition and functioning of the Athletes' Commission are described in the relevant regulations as approved by the Plenary Assembly.

PARACLIMBING COMMISSION

Article 38

Composition and functioning of the Paraclimbing Commission are described in the relevant regulations as approved by the Plenary Assembly.

VI. FINANCES

Article 39

The IFSC will finance its own activities through sources such as:

- a) Membership and subscription fees of its Members;

- b) The organization and authorization of Competitions, competitor entry fees, and any other fees relating to official competitions;
- c) Any other sources that may be available (sponsorships, TV rights, donations, etc.).

Article 40

The individuals who serve on the IFSC bodies are volunteers. However, considering the work carried out, some of them are entitled to receive financial compensation as presented in the related policy approved by the Executive Board. The expenses of the Executive Board and the Commissions are borne by the IFSC according to regulations of the Executive Board.

Within approved budgets, the Plenary Assembly of the IFSC and the Executive Board are empowered to authorise payment of fees and expenses to individuals and/or organisations to provide specific professional service or advice.

Article 41

The financial year of the IFSC shall run from the 1st January to the 31st December annually.

Article 42

The Plenary Assembly of the IFSC shall receive and approve annual budgets detailing the forecast income from all sources and the proposed annual expenditure and shall establish and maintain financial accounting system and produce annual accounts audited by the accredited Auditor, appointed by the Plenary Assembly of the IFSC, meeting international recognized standards.

Article 43

Only the assets of the IFSC can be used to settle IFSC liabilities and obligations. Any liability of the Member Associations is excluded.

Article 44

The basic currency for annual accounting purposes will be the Euro.

VII. SYMBOLS AND LOGOS

Article 45

The symbols, logos and their production, as well as the name "International Federation of Sport Climbing" and the abbreviation "IFSC" are the exclusive property of the International Federation of Sport Climbing and may not be used without its consent.

VIII. DISSOLUTION OF IFSC

IFSC BYE-LAWS

Bye-law to Article 2

Purposes

The IFSC also looks after all other matters concerning the sport of climbing as they arise and affect competition climbing.

Bye-law to Article 5

Competitions Events

The IFSC organizes the World Championship, the Youth World Championship, the World Cup, the International events, senior and youth, and the Continental Championships where a Continental Council is not in existence. The IFSC is also responsible for the technical organisation when competition climbing is participating in multi-sport events.

Calendar

The coordination of dates is mandatory and shall be achieved through recommendations of the Executive Board, in consultation with the Event Commission, for the vote of the Plenary Assembly.

Bye-law to Article 5

Gender Equality

The IFSC is committed to gender equality at all levels within its competitions and management, allowing women to have the same opportunities as men.

IFSC-approved competitions shall guarantee a balanced participation for Men and Women in all disciplines, including equality in prizes and prize money.

Bye-law to Article 5 I)

Environment

The IFSC is working for "no-impact" competitions and events.

IFSC-approved competitions, in particular International Championships or Cup series, shall take place on artificial climbing walls and not on natural rock. If approved Promotional or International events are held on natural rock, then IFSC requires that the organizer takes all reasonable precautions to avoid any impact on the environment.

Bye-law to Article 6

Membership Procedure and Criteria

Eligibility

Membership of IFSC is open to national climbing organisations, uniquely representing climbing and climbing competitions in that country. In addition, the organisation must:

1. be organized with statutes and other regulations in compliance with the IFSC statutes, rules and regulations;
2. be open to participation without regard to race, colour, religion, national origin, gender;
3. be controlled by its members according to democratic principles.

The IFSC recognizes as Observer Member, due to historical reasons, the following federation:

IFSC Honorary presidency and other awards

Foreword

To honor the extraordinary work and support for the IFSC and its development, an individual may be awarded by a special recognition.

§ 1 Awards

The following awards can recognize extraordinary work and support:

- IFSC Honorary presidency (§ 2)
- IFSC Honorary membership (§ 3)

§ 2 Honorary presidency

1. The IFSC Honorary presidency can be awarded to persons who were president of the IFSC and who earned great merits in their work and engagement in the IFSC;
2. The IFSC Honorary President is not to be considered an IFSC Executive Board Member;
3. Upon the request of the IFSC President, he/she may participate in the works of the IFSC bodies without any voting power and occasionally represent the IFSC;
4. The IFSC Honorary President is allowed to participate in the IFSC Plenary Assembly. Travel expenses and accommodation (hotel and meals) are to be borne by the IFSC;
5. The decision about Honorary presidency belongs to the Plenary Assembly.

§ 3 Honorary membership

1. The Honorary membership can be awarded to persons who did great work in the IFSC bodies or earned great merits through their general engagement for IFSC development;
2. The Honorary membership is not connected with the membership in an IFSC Member Federation. Honorary Members are allowed to take part in the IFSC PAs. The accommodation (hotel and meals) costs may be borne by the IFSC upon the decision of the IFSC Plenary Assembly;
3. The decision about Honorary membership belongs to the IFSC PA;
4. An honorary Member is not entitled to stand for election in any IFSC body;
5. An Honorary Member cannot act on behalf the IFSC or represent the IFSC, unless he receives an official mandate from the IFSC President or from the IFSC Board;
6. An honorary member won't act in opposition or damage for the IFSC, in particular against the members of the Executive Board;

World up
Keep
Climbing

7. If the Honorary Member's behavior is detrimental for the IFSC, the case will be reported to the Disciplinary Commission of the IFSC, which might propose the dismissal of the Honorary membership;
8. An Honorary Member cannot communicate for the IFSC or use the IFSC logo without an official authorization of the IFSC President or the IFSC Board.

§ 4 Service award

The Service award can be awarded to an individual or an organization that are not members of the IFSC but have contributed to IFSC success and growth. Their contribution could be in the way of a donation of time or money or in some other way contribute to the success of our organization.

§ 5 Procedure

1. Nomination for the Candidature for a new Honorary Member can be made by any full member of the IFSC and supported by two other full members;
2. Each nomination must be submitted with a comprehensive description of merits and works as well as an explanation as to why the candidate deserves honorary membership. It will be the responsibility of the member(s) submitting the nomination to provide all pertinent data in support of the nomination;
3. The IFSC President will form as Chairman, a temporary Honors Committee to evaluate the nomination(s) consisting of: two IFSC Board members and two Honorary members;
4. The Honors Committee will evaluate the nomination and make a proposal for the IFSC Plenary Assembly. The Honors committee may by majority vote:
 1. Decide not to recommend the award, in which case no further action is taken, or
 2. Seek additional information from the nominator, in which case the nomination is held over for further consideration or,
 3. recommend the award.
5. The application is subject to the approval of the Federation from which the candidate belongs to;
6. Until this point, the nominations are strictly confidential. Only the names of those who are recommended will be disclosed;
7. The recommendation must be presented at least 4 weeks before the PA and available on the website;
8. The application must be in written form and sent at least 3 months before the PA by email to the office and the IFSC President;
9. An affirmative vote of simple majority of the Plenary Assembly shall be required for Honorary Membership. Voting can be done also by email or Skype;
10. The awards are presented by the IFSC President or an Executive Board member. The awarding of Honorary presidency or membership is done in occasion of the IFSC PA.

§ 6 Withdrawal of awards

1. Honorary awards may be withdrawn if :
 - a. the awarded person behaviour is detrimental for the IFSC;
 - b. the awarded person is legally excluded from his/her National Federation, member of the IFSC.
2. The withdrawal is in the power of the IFSC Plenary Assembly, upon the proposal of the IFSC Disciplinary Commission;
