Basic principles

- Each team is composed by 4 athletes (2 Men and 2 Women).
- There are three sections of Boulders, composed by 2 Boulders per section. In total, 6 Boulders
- Climbing time is fix to 5 minutes per Boulder Section.
- The National team climbs each section, and it is divided between the two Boulders. Each Boulder is climbed by two athletes, with obliged mixed pairs.
- The athletes can talk, share betas and information. They autonomously decide who is the first one to climb, and how to organise their 5 minutes climbing time. Coach can talk with athletes.
- Observation is done only by the coach, who select the mixed pairs for each boulder. Therefore, competition is conducted under isolation conditions.
- All the attempts, top, zones of the Team count. Once one athlete tops the Boulder, his/her session stops.
