

INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF SPORT CLIMBING

CLARIFICATION ON TOMORROW'S MEN'S COMBINED FINAL

PRESS RELEASE 2021/34

Tokyo - 4 August 2021

The quota for the final round of the men's Combined event is set out in Art. 11.2 of the IFSC Rules.

At the Tokyo 2020 Sport Climbing competition, the eight highest ranked athletes from the qualification round are eligible to participate in the final. Athlete substitution is possible only when an athlete is either disqualified or otherwise not ranked in the previous round.

As of now, the official list of participants for the men's Combined final at the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 is as follows:

1. Mickael Mawem (FRA)
2. Tomoa Narasaki (JPN)
3. Colin Duffy (USA)
4. Jakob Schubert (AUT)
5. Adam Ondra (CZE)
6. Alberto Gines Lopez (ESP)
7. Bassa Mawem (FRA)
8. Nathaniel Coleman (USA)

For more information:

Marco VETTORETTI, IFSC Head of Communications
marco.vettoretti@ifsc-climbing.org | +39 371 4155701

