MEDIA ADVISORY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - July 9, 2013

Request for Media Credentials / Registration - IFSC World Youth Climbing Championships

The International Federation of Sport Climbing (IFSC) World Youth Climbing Championships are being held August 15-19 at The Boulders Climbing Gym at Stelly's Secondary School in Central Saanich.

In preparation for media coverage of this event, we are asking all media organizations who intend to be in attendance, to please send us the names of all possible reporters, photographers, videographers and related others, so that we may pre-register them and have associated credentials available for them at the event.

Media will be required to check-in at the event at the Media Table on a daily basis, so if you will have different staff attending on different days, please ensure that you provide a list of ALL possible individuals who might attend.

To register, please forward an e-mail to Christian Stewart at cstewart@cjscons.com listing the names of the individuals who will attend, their position (e.g., photographer, reporter) and their affiliation. Please also provide a contact phone number or e-mail for each.

NOTE:

All Media attending the IFSC World Youth Championships will be required check-in at the Media Table prior to entering the competition venue. Distinctive Media Vests will be provided to each person when they check-in and these are required to be worn at all times while in attendance. Media vests must be returned to the Media Table when departing.

Further details on venue logistics and athlete access for photos and interviews will be provided closer to the event.
