

IFSC CLIMBING WORLD CUP MOKPO 2013 :
IFSC CLIMBING WORLD CUP
GOES TO EAST ASIA: ASIAN
IFSC CLIMBING WORLD CUP

This October, East Asia is the place to be for the world's best Speed and Lead climbers! The World Cup event in Mokpo (KOR) on October 11th and 12th is the prelude to a two-week Asian Tour followed by competitions in the Chinese cities of Haiyang on October, 15th and 16th, and Wuijiang October, 19th and 20th.

Pack your climbing bags, autumn is here: two weeks after the last Lead and Speed competitions in Perm (RUS) the IFSC retinue is moving to Mokpo (KOR) to take part in one of three contests coming up in East Asia within ten days.

Live and loud

The world's best Lead climbers are breaking ground in Korea at the qualifications on Friday, October 11th, starting at 10:00AM (GMT+9) - with hometown hero Jain Kim and Spain's Ramòn Julian Puigblanque leading the way in the rankings. Not to be discounted, World Cup Overall winner 2012 Mina Markovic and Momoka Oda are lying in wait to climb up the rankings, and give challenge Kim the competition she deserves. On the men's side, Puurs winner Jakob Schubert and Japan's Sachi Amma are also ready to chase Ramonet all the way to the top!

In the Speed competition the pressure is on Russia's stars Stanislav Kokorin and Alina Gaydamakina to retain their leading positions. The band begins to play on Friday, October 11th with the Speed final for men and women at 4:00PM (GMT+9), followed by the Lead finals on Saturday starting at 4:30PM (GMT+9).

More information and a detailed schedule can be found on the IFSC website; all climbing fans who will not be on site will be able to watch the competition live online at www.ifsc-climbing.org.
